

IADSA

Code of Conduct

The Irish Agility & Dog Sports Association (IADSA) is committed to creating a positive & inclusive environment for all canine enthusiasts. To ensure a pleasant, harmonious & enjoyable experience and environment for all our members, we have established the following code of conduct.

1) Respect of Others

- Treat all members, judges & guests with kindness & respect both in person & online (social media)
- Avoid any form of discrimination, including but not limited to race, gender, age or dog breed.
- Be courteous & co-operative with all committee members & organisers of any IADSA licensed event.
- Do not bring the IADSA committee or organisation into disrepute.

2) Adherence to the IADSA Rules & Regulations

- Familiarise yourself with & adhere to the specific rules & regulations and the constitution & by-laws of IADSA.
- Non-compliance of any of the IADSA rules & regulations may result in disciplinary action being taken as per the IADSA Constitution Article VI Section 2.

3) Social Media Use

- Refrain from making any negative or disparaging comments about any IADSA member or event on the IADSA members' social media platform.
- Respect the privacy & consent of others before posting pictures or videos of them or their dogs on social media.
- Represent IADSA positively & responsibly in your own online interactions.

By participating in any IADSA licensed event you agree to abide by this code of conduct. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary action being taken as per the IADSA Constitution Article VI Section 2.
